Biblical Separation

The Bible says in Jude 1:3, “Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.” [KJB]

There are some Independent Baptist pastors who have slowed down or have stopped earnestly contending for the faith. It is not wrong to take a stand against Catholicism, because there is no hope in the pope. False religious cults need to be exposed for what they really are, which are dens of religious idolatry. We need to continue to stand unapologetically for the King James Bible, and against the deceptions of other Bible perversions.

As Christians we need to be personally separate in our dress, music, and involvement in this world’s activities. We cannot go along to get along in or outside of the church house in order to please man. Proverbs 16:7 says, “When a man’s ways please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.” [KJB] Also Proverbs 29:25 says, “The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe.” [KJB]

I have recently encountered some Independent Baptist pastors, who are affiliated with an Independent Baptist ministry that are involved with a group of ecumenists, because they say it is in order to reach a particular group of people for the Lord. Hogwash! No one can run with the dogs and not catch the fleas. In other words, we cannot do wrong in order to do right. God expects us to be ecclesiastically separated from religious groups that are compromising with the world. The Bible tells not to have “fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness” (Ephesians 5:11a). II Corinthians 6:17, 18 says, “Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.” God has not called us to compromise, but to stand for the old paths wherein dwelleth righteousness.

God has not, nor will He ever, bless the method of compromise. It is God’s way or no way! AMEN!

Politically Correct Terms vs. Biblically Correct Terms

In the last issue, we dealt with the question: “Are You Politically Correct or Biblically Correct?” based on Romans 12:2. In that article, I stated how that too many professing Christians are conforming to the world’s vocabulary. This issue I wish to expand on that thought by giving two examples of God’s terminology verses the world’s terminology.

The first example would be the term homosexual; this is a politically correct term, not a Biblically correct term. God doesn’t call men who commit this immoral, sinful act “homosexuals”. He calls them sodomites, etc. (see Deuteronomy 23:17; I Corinthians 6:9). The term “homosexual” didn’t even exist in the English language until the late 1800s. It was invited by a sodomite, the Hungarian journalist, Karl-Maria Kertbeny. This term is used to downplay the action and nature of the sin! The second example are the words pregnancy and pregnant. The sanctity of the unborn baby’s life takes on a whole new meaning when we instead use God’s term of “with child” (ex. Genesis 16:11; Luke 2:5; Revelation 12:2). Remember, the King James Bible—not the world—is our first and final absolute authority on ALL matters of faith and PRACTICE!

I realize that some Christians—especially preachers—have used these terms out of ignorance (as did I at one time). But there is no longer room for that excuse! It’s time to repent of this use of politically correct terminology, and get back to using God’s terminology.

THE BIBLICAL CREATION SCIENCE CORNER

Is Creation Science Really Science?

Evolutionists will often claim that Creation Science is not science, sometimes calling it pseudoscience (fake science). They justify this by claiming that it is not falsifiable. However, they are confusing Creation Science for the Biblical account of creation. In Creation Science the Biblical account of creation is used as frame work for developing scientific theories that are indeed falsifiable as well as showing how science in general supports the Biblical account of creation. Likewise, the “Big Bang to man Evolution” story is not falsifiable, but serves as a fame work for scientific theories that are falsifiable.

Delegitimizing opposition is a tactic often used when that opposition can not be defeated on intellectual grounds. Such tactics allow the opposition and any evidence they have to be dismissed out of hand. Evolutionists have used this tactic make sure that only “Big Bang to man Evolution” is taught in most schools. This not only gives “Big Bang to man Evolution” the apprentice of being proven fact, but it reduces it to a level of being nothing more than propaganda.

The fact is that while “Big Bang to man Evolution” keeps needing to be patched to make it fit reality, the predictions of several Creation Science theories have been confirmed. So is Creation Science really science? The answer is clearly yes; not only does it produce falsifiable theories, but those theories are often shown to produce successful predictions, rather than the constant patching “Big Bang to man Evolution” needs.
