Dear Brethren,

"Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, 14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:13-14).

A brand new year is upon us. 2017 has passed on and 2018 has begun. What a year 2017 has been; it was a year of great blessings from the Lord. I look forward to what the Lord has in store for this year.

The meetings in November went well. What a blessing it was to present the work at New Grace Baptist Church (Bro. Taylor, pastor) in Iron Station, NC as well as preach at Tri-City Baptist Church (Bro. Wood, pastor) in Eden, NC. The Lord bless them greatly for the love, fellowship and kindness they showed His servant. The Lord also blessed me with the opportunity to present the work at Glory Bound Baptist Church in Kings Mountain, NC. I pray that God will bless Bro. Rote and his congregation for the fellowship, love and generosity they bestowed upon me during my visit. Please pray for the souls I got to witness to during these trips that they will get saved.

For Sunday, December 31, 2018, I was blessed with a final scheduled meeting. I had the opportunity to present the work and preach at Eagles View Baptist Church (Bro. Richard Bell, pastor) in Rex, GA. I was also able to preached in their afternoon service. I ask my sweet Lord to bless them richly for the love, kindness, fellowship, and hospitality they showed me during my visit.

This year is off to a wonderful start. On Sunday, January 5, 2018, I visited Temple Missionary Baptist Church (Bro. Levi Nix, pastor) in Gainesville, GA for their evening service. In that service I was blessed with the opportunity to present the work and ministry to them. The Lord bless them for their love, fellowship and generosity that they gave me.

I also have had my first two scheduled meetings for this year. On Sunday morning, January 21, I had a meeting at one of my supporting churches, Woodlawn Baptist Church (Bro. Ken Branyan, pastor) in Greenville, SC. There I was able to give an update on Capitol Hill Independent Baptist Ministries and preach the word. The meeting went very well, and two people came forward at the invitation. I am very grateful to them for their prayers, support, as well as giving me the right hand of fellowship, and the love and kindness they showed me during my visit.

That Sunday night, I had a meeting at Prayer Baptist Church (Bro. James Anthony, pastor) in Central, SC where I had the joy of presenting the work to them. Bro. Anthony preach a great message from Acts 11. I especially love what he said: "Walk so close to God that you don't have room for the devil." It would do us all good to remember that. God bless them for their love, fellowship, and generosity.

Coming up, Lord willing, on Sunday, January 28, I have a meeting at Red Hill Baptist Church (Bro. Randy Wise, pastor) in Bakersville, NC. Please pray for this meeting, safe traveling mercies, and the souls that I'll be witnessing to along the way. Please pray that they Lord will prepare their hearts for the gospel, as well as me to witness to them.

At this present time, in February, I have only one scheduled meeting. Lord willing, on Sunday night, February 18, I will have a meeting at Ridge Road Baptist Church (Bro. Dwayne Hewett, pastor) in Hiram, GA. Again, I ask for prayer for this meeting, the trip, and those I will be witnessing to. Also during this time, I will be visiting various churches in North Carolina, Georgia, and Tennessee as the Lord leads. Please pray for guidance from the Lord, as well as an open door to present the work at these churches. Pray also for the lost souls that I will be witnessing to on these future trips.

Recently, I did some evaluation of my current monthly support, and discovered I need only about five more churches to take me on and I will be able to return to the field. Praise the Lord! Please pray or this for this need. The sooner I get these five churches, the sooner I get back on the field and preach the gospel of Jesus Christ to the lost in our federal and state capitals--especially to the politicians and others who work in government. Brethren, please pray--I am very eager to rejoin Bro. Raddish on the field.

The Bible says in Philippians 4:19, "But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Praise God for His provision. The Lord provided the funds my brother and I needed to pay the property tax on the house this year. Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

The Raddishes are doing well; please pray for them as they travel and serve the Lord. They send their love and greetings in the Lord. My older brother, Charles Creager, Jr., still needs your prayers as he continues to raise his support. He also greets you all in the name of the Lord.

Thank you all once again for your prayers and support. "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen" (Philippians 4:23).

Yours in Christ,

Bro. James Creager
